 5. Finalization of Annual Prize Distribution function (date & other preparations) and Chief Guest for the same.
 6. To organize a three-day camp for disaster management preparedness in collaboration with DDMA Una.
 7. Stock verification of all departments for the session 2023-24.
- The meeting concluded with decisive actions aimed at enhancing student engagement and campus infrastructure. Firstly, it was agreed to actively encourage student participation in upcoming sports and cultural competitions organized by HPU, including the Inter-College Competition and the HPU Youth Festival, fostering a vibrant atmosphere of competition and creativity.
 - To address the imperative of career readiness, plans were set in motion to organize a Job Fair, or Rojgaar Mela, within the college premises through the Career and Placement Cell, facilitating avenues for students to explore employment opportunities and internships. It was also decided to sign more MoUs with renowned institutions for the benefit of the students
 - In alignment with global initiatives, the college resolved to commemorate the "International Year of Millets 2023", underscoring the significance of sustainable agriculture and nutritional diversity.
 - Further, logistical arrangements for significant college events were deliberated, including the tentative dates for the Annual Athletic Meet, CSCA Function, and the selection of Chief Guests, ensuring meticulous planning and execution.
 - Moreover, preparations for the Annual Prize Distribution Function were finalized, encompassing decisions regarding the event's date, logistical arrangements, and the selection of a distinguished Chief Guest to honor student achievements.
 - It was decided to collaborate with DDMA Una to organize a three Day camp for the Disaster Management Preparedness of the students of the college.
